DAY 3 | NEWPORT, RHODE ISLAND

Your first port of call will be Newport, Rhode Island is known for its beautiful beaches, stunning coastal views, and a variety of outdoor activities. Explore the many historic sites, take a stroll along the waterfront, or enjoy a variety of water sports. There are also plenty of shopping and dining options, as well as a vibrant nightlife. For those looking for a more relaxed experience, there are plenty of parks and trails to explore. No matter what you're looking for, Newport has something for everyone.

DAY 4 | BOSTON, MASSACHUSETTS

Boston, Massachusetts is known for its rich history and culture. It is home to many iconic landmarks, such as the Freedom Trail, the U.S.S. Constitution, and the Bunker Hill Monument. Visitors can explore the city's many museums, such as the Museum of Fine Arts, the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum, and the John F. Kennedy Presidential Library and Museum. There are also plenty of opportunities to enjoy the outdoors, from the Charles River Esplanade to the Boston Common and Public Garden. Shopping, dining, and nightlife are also popular activities in Boston. Enjoy!

DAY 5 | PORTLAND, MAINE

Portland was founded in 1632 by the British as a fishing and trading post and named Casco. In 1658 the name was changed to Falmouth and Portland was put on the map in 1786. While Portland's name has changed over the years the essence of the area has not changed. Today, Portland still remains a vibrant fishing and commercial port, Maine's largest city, and its cultural, social and economic capital. From the renovated Old Port with its brick sidewalks and cobblestone streets to the quaint seaside village of Kennebunkport, the summer home of President George H. Bush, Portland and the surrounding area have something for everyone. Photographers are sure to delight at the photo opportunities including the Portland Head Lighthouse and the picturesque White Mountains on the Cog Railway. Shoppers will enjoy the Old Port and downtown area that feature many unique boutiques, shops, galleries and restaurants. Outdoor enthusiasts will surely want to visit the world-renowned outdoor outfitter L.L. Bean® and the many other brand name outlets in nearby Freeport, Maine!

DAY 6 | DAY AT SEA PART 1

Today is your day to enjoy the ship and all of its amenities! Visit the Spa, read a book on the deck, enjoy high tea in one of the main restaurants or relax by the pool.

DAY 7 | HALIFAX, CANADA

The capital of Nova Scotia and the largest city in Canada's Atlantic Provinces, Halifax was once Great Britain's major military bastion in North America. The beautifully restored waterfront buildings of Halifax's Historic Properties recall the city's centuries-old maritime heritage. Stroll the waterfront, and you may find Nova Scotia's floating ambassador, the schooner Bluenose II, tied up to Privateer's Wharf, just as old sailing ships have done for over 200 years. Halifax is also the gateway to Nova Scotia's stunning scenery, including famous Peggy's Cove, where surf-pounded granite cliffs and a solitary lighthouse create an unsurpassed scene of rugged natural beauty.

DAY 8 | DAY AT SEA PART 2

Today is your day to enjoy the ship and all of its amenities! Read on the Lido Deck while watching the changing colors on shore, listen to some wonderful music, swim in the pool, enjoy the spa or just do nothing! Today is your day to do whatever you wish! This evening enjoy a private farewell get together before dinner in one of the
